

A Regional Chapter of The Medical Library Association

July 1, 2001

Dear Colleague:

On behalf of the NAHSL 2001 Conference Planning Committee and of CAHSL, the Connecticut Association of Health Sciences Librarians, we'd like to invite you to participate in the 2001 Annual Conference. This year it will be a joint meeting between the North Atlantic Health Sciences Libraries Chapter and the New York-New Jersey Chapter of the Medical Library Association. This great opportunity for education, networking and professional enrichment will take place in New Haven, Connecticut at the Omni Hotel on October 13-16, 2001.

The conference theme, Information and Technology: Fitting the Pieces Together, reflects the program's efforts to identify these challenges, transitions and opportunities that our profession continues to face. The NAHSL 2001 Conference Planning, Program and Education Committees are planning the puzzle pieces of your experience. The engaging keynote presentations, continuing education opportunities, seminars and vendor exhibits will enlighten you as you work to complete your own puzzle in life.

The Omni New Haven Hotel at Yale is located in the heart of historic downtown New Haven. Just two blocks from Yale University and across from the New Haven Green, the hotel is within walking distance to a fine selection of museums, theaters, shops, quaint boutiques and restaurants. Use the enclosed registration form to book your room early, as this will be high season for leaf peepers. Deadline for conference rates is September 14th 2001.

We are confident that you will come away from your visit to New Haven having put together the pieces. Visiting with old friends, meeting new people, absorbing new information from the exhibitors, learning answers to questions and contributing to your organization will come together to form a memorable time. We are all looking forward to welcoming you to this promising conference. Please plan to join us in October! Deadline for Conference Registration "Early Bird" rates is September 14th, 2001.

Sincerely,
